

SINGLE ACCREDITATION OF JOINT PROGRAMMES
“TURNING A BOLOGNA GUIDELINE INTO REALITY”
Vilnius, 30-31 May 2017

European Joint Master's in Strategic Border Management

A student's perspective

Author: Major Pascal Wolf, Royal Netherlands Marechaussee

Content

- Experiences from a student
- Advantages
- Challenges
- Conclusion

Experiences from a student

- Selection criteria for the programme
- Combining traveling, working, studying and family life
- Meeting new people, making new friends
- High level teaching and discussion

Advantages

- Unique opportunity to develop a European level understanding
- Multi-regional and cultural approach
- Learning from good practices
- Developing new ideas
- Creating a professional and academic network

Challenges

- Combination of study and work, a European programme demands travel
- Language skills
- Cultural and regional differences
- Sending organisation's and family involvement

Conclusion

- Much more than a normal Master's
- Excellent way to develop European standards and integrated approaches
- Combining the best practices of national teaching and research
- Creation of a European professional and academic alumni network